

I disobeyed, and I kneel beside my bed and confess my sin to Jesus. I know He forgives me because He has promised.

I love to read Jesus' Word more than anything else because it has lots of power to make my naughty heart clean.

I spend time studying the Bible every morning. This is how I make my "Bread of Life."

I ask every day for God's power to "keep" me from falling into sin. I know Jesus is in the Most Holy Room and very soon He will no longer be forgiving sin.

I wouldn't want to kill a lamb. Neither do I want to choose "my way" for it hurts Jesus, just like killing Him again.

I let Jesus' light shine out through my life by cheerfully helping Mother clean the house.

I pray to Jesus every morning and evening and often throughout the day. He stands in the heavenly sanctuary ready to help me.
